Joel Brown & Heidi Riepe Fantasies on the Steinway Sept. 17 at Sondheim

Sondheim Chamber Music Spotlight Series
kicks off with Mt. Pleasant pianists

The Sondheim Chamber Music Spotlight Series kicks off with a piano duet recital, “Fantasies on the Steinway,” featuring Dr. Joel Brown and Heidi Riepe of Mt. Pleasant, Tuesday, September 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the Sondheim Center for the Performing Arts.

Brown and Riepe will perform selections from Claude Debussy, Donald Townsend, and Franz Schubert and feature the Petite Suite, 4 Fantasies on American Folk-songs and Fantasy in f minor, Op. 104, D. 940.

Brown, retired Professor of Music from Iowa Wesleyan University, makes a return visit to the Chamber Music Spotlight Series and Heidi Riepe is making her debut on the series. Riepe graduated from Kansas State University with a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance and has taught collegiate level piano for many years.

General admission tickets for are available at the Fairfield Arts & Convention Center Ticket Office, 641-472-2787 or at www.FairfieldACC.com.

The 2015-16 Sondheim Chamber Music Spotlight Series includes the following concerts: Mark Valenti, Evolution of Piano Styles, October 27; Eugene Gaub and Nancy

Cafe Ceili Band Plays Contra Dance, Saturday

Fairfield’s September contra dance this Saturday, Sept. 12 at 8 p.m. will feature live music by the Café Ceili Band and calling by a guest from Muscatine, Thomas Hurlbut. All are welcome. No partner or experience is necessary.

All dances are taught, and beginners are warmly encouraged to attend the lesson at 7:30. Dancers are asked to bring clean, soft-soled shoes to dance in. Location is the Morning Star Studio Ballroom (51½ N. Court, second floor). Admission is free for kids aged 12 and younger; $5 minimum for students, MUM staff and faculty, and people aged 65 and over; and $10 for all others.

Fairfield Folk Arts and Dance Co-op sponsors monthly evening contra dances with live music by local or regionally known musicians. More information is available at www.fairfolk.org, by visiting Facebook (www.facebook.com/FairfolkDancers), or by contacting April Maberry at a.maberry.kpl@gmail.com.

Live on the Square: A Flash in a Pan Saturday, Sept. 19

Also that day: Kiwanis Kids Day, Blue Zones Certification Ceremony, McFarland USA free film, Community Visions Designs unveiling — details next week!

The third and final Live on the Square Summer Concert will feature A Flash in a Pan, a six-piece bluegrass/folk group that made their first appearance in Fairfield during FAIRfest this past June. Families attending the annual Kiwanis Kids Day are invited to stay and enjoy the music, starting at 5 pm. Saturday in Central Park.

Since the 2000 release of the motion picture O Brother Where Art Thou and building on the success of groups like Mumford and Sons and Old Crow Medicine Show, the bluegrass and folk music scene has experienced a revival in recent years. Still rooted in the hills of Appalachia, the genre has evolved into a popular choice for audiences looking for something

First Annual Creative Edge Film Festival Launches–Sept. 25-27

Fairfield needs its own film festival,” declares Tracy McCormick owner and founder of Lightfinder Public Relations. “Wouldn’t it be great to see Sean Penn walking out of Café P?” In two months, Tracy has pulled together the first annual Creative Edge Film Festival (CEFF) with the collaboration of executive producers Ginger and Jim Belilove and main sponsor Creative Edge Master Shop. On September 25, 26 and 27, the Orpheum Theater will be screening the documentaries, narratives, music video, and a surprise short not to be missed by animal lovers.

“It’s a showcase and a forum for films that are quirky, thought-provoking, and entertaining. We are trying to create the reputation that we bring good, inspiring, quality films,” explains Jim. CEFF is focusing on uplifting films.

Jim describes the festival as a way to showcase Fairfield’s talent. Most of the films have some connection to Fairfield. World Fair is a short documentary directed by Amanda Murray about the 1939 New York World’s Fair, as told by fairgoers now in their 80’s and 90’s. Amanda is co-owner of the production company Wicked Delicate, which also includes her husband Ian Cheney from King Corn. Ian Cheney’s documentary, The Search for General Tso, is a full-length documentary exploring the origins of the popular Chinese-American dish, Tso Chicken. But as Jim, Ian’s uncle says, “It’s more of a look at the immigrant experience and how the Chinese were able to find a place in American culture.” The film is a 2014 Sundance Select.

The documentary Paolo Soleri: Beyond Form is the film that started it

Planetary Transits for Rising Sign, Sept. 10-16

Chart of the Week: American self-help author and motivational speaker, Wayne Dyer (May 10, 1940 at 3:13 a.m., Detroit, MI) had the Pisces rising sign with Sun in Aries and Moon in Taurus. Ketu in the 1st house brought spirituality. Sun, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn in the 2nd house gave status through his career, writing, business, partnerships, and international ventures – along with the ability to measure words on religion and education as an authority figure. Moon in the 3rd house gave entrepreneurial success with the public. Mars and Venus in the 4th house gave property and assets. Rahu in the 7th house gave ambitious joint ventures. The affliction of the 12th ruler, Saturn, to the 7th ruler, Mercury, gave three failed marriages. The weak Sun, Moon, and Mars did not support his heart or cardiovascular system.

Transits for each “Rising sign” (not “Sun sign”):

Aries: Focus on property and home life. Connect same with marriage, partnerships and joint ventures. Consider a new car and redecorate your living space. Make good use of music, flowers, design, and luxuries. Your children, education, investments, health and finances should be doing well. Think big. Be patient with income and friendships through Oct.

Taurus: Focus on property, vehicles and home life. Your children and investments should do well. Work on business, brokering and communications. Your mind is quite fertile. Recent losses and/all. As Tracy said, "I told Jim about Soleri's film and said we should have a screening in Fairfield. That led to the idea of a film festival." Tracy was good friends with Soleri for the last decade of his life. Narrated by actor-activist Peter Coyote, the film shows Soleri's futuristic architectural designs and creations in Arcosanti, Arizona, which have earned him a following that continues to grow even after his recent death. Director Aimee Madison will be available for Q&A after the shows.

Several works will be on the schedule every night in addition to the featured films. This includes: a music video, Mysteries of Love – featuring the theme song from 'Blue Velvet', vocals by Kid Moxie, and music by Angelo Badalamenti and David Lynch—produced and filmed in Fairfield; Firefly Experience by Fairfield's Radim Schreiber, showing us his magic behind photographing fireflies; a short teaser for the documentary Last Man Standing, about Fairfield's WWII veteran, Captain Jerry Yellin; and Les Mutts Creative Edge Promo by LA cinematographer and puppeteer Alex Griffin, who grew up in Fairfield.

Creative Edge Film Fest Showtimes: Friday, Sept. 25 & Saturday, Sept. 26 at 8 p.m. (doors open 7:30 p.m.), Sunday, September 27 at 2 p.m. (doors open 1:30 p.m.) and 8 p.m. (doors open 7:30 p.m.). Connecting Suicide to Substance Abuse/Addiction Sept 10 at FPL

The public is invited to attend Connecting Suicide to Substance Abuse/Addiction, a lecture, film and Q&A session this Thursday, Sept. 10, 7 p.m. at the Fairfield Public Library. Presented by FairfieldCares, a Fairfield/Jefferson County Suicide Prevention coalition and cosponsored by the Fairfield/Jefferson County Mental Health Alliance.

The event explores how substance abuse and addiction intertwines with suicide. The strongest predictor of suicide is alcoholism, not a psychiatric diagnosis. People with drug addictions are about six times more likely to commit suicide than the general population.

Featured speaker Brian Simmons is a Licensed Independent Social Worker and International Alcohol and Drug Counselor (IADC). He works for Iowa Counseling Service through the River Hills Medical Behavioral Health Center in Ottumwa.

The event begins with a brief film at 7 p.m. Bridging Addiction and Suicide by Raymond Dalton. Cathleen Casey and Rob Hubler, co-directors of FairfieldCares, and Mayor Ed Malloy will speak before Brian Simmons. Q&A session follows. All are welcome.

Ethel Olicker memorial poetry reading, Sunday

The public is invited to a poetry reading/memorial for Ethel Olicker, mother of Carol Olicker, at the Fairfield Public Library, Sunday, Sept 13, 8-9:30 pm.

Among other activities in her rich and productive life, Ethel wrote poetry and self-published a little booklet. Free copies are available in advance if requested, from Carol and at the gathering where anyone is invited to read aloud their favorite selection, or share a brief memory of their own mother.

Carol will be serving snacks at the memorial, therefore please RSVP to 472-5437 or iggysdaughter@yahoo.com.

An Ethel Olicker Memorial Free Writing Scholarship Fund is being created for anyone in need to attend Rae Bird's Women's Writing Project classes. For information, contact Rae at 206-708-5756.

Hear Inkfingerz contest winner Angela Mailander at three events, Sept. 10-12

Angela Mailander, winner of the recent Inkfingerz writing contest, is not just a good writer, she's also an excellent story teller. Her winning entry, A Girl with Spirit, is both funny and deep. You can read it at writersvoices.com, then consider attending one of her book signing events listed below. Angela's recently published memoir ANGELA: CHILDHOOD IN WAR-TORN GERMANY; THE HISTORY OMITTED FROM 'OFFICIAL' TEXTS will be available at all the events. The book can also be found on Amazon.

The Inkfingerz Creative Prose Contest is sponsored by Writers' Voices with Monica and Caroline on KRUU and 1st World publishing of Fairfield and is open to local writers with a completed book-length prose manuscript. The winner receives a royalty publishing contract with 1st World. Runner-up in the 2015 contest was Judith Hans-Price with her young adult novel, TSUNAMI DOG. 1st World will publish Volume II of Angela's memoir. Volume III will be forthcoming as well. The trilogy tells of an extraordinary and eventful life teaching in six different cultures: Germany, France, Greece, India, China, and, of course, the U.S. Her education has been unusual in that she has earned two Ph.D.'s. But what might be most interesting to Fairfielders is the fact that Angela learned to meditate when she was six years old in 1946. As a writer, she is most grateful for her time in the International Writing Program at the University of Iowa where she taught both creative writing and literary translation. Don't miss one or all of her events this week, Sept. 10 - 12

Thursday, Sept. 10, 7:30 p.m. at ICON Gallery - Angela will discuss her extraordinary life and read from her new book.

Friday, Sept. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at Revelations - Reading and Booksigning.

Saturday, Sept. 12, 2 p.m. at Fairfield Public Library - Reading and Booksigning.

Fairfield Visioning Committee to present final conceptual landscape designs

Residents of Fairfield will have the opportunity to view the final conceptual landscape designs created through the Community Visioning Program, in which Fairfield has been a participant since January. On Saturday, September 19, 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m., Meg Flenker from Flenker Land Architecture Consultants, Trees Forever Field Coordinator Hannah Howard, and Fairfield Community Visioning committee members will be available to answer questions regarding these designs. The viewing takes place at Central Park, during the Kiwanis Kids Day celebration.

Some of the areas that have been addressed in these plans include Burlington Avenue improvements, storm water enhancement projects, various intersection improvements for safety, outdoor dining in Central Park, way finding signage, and the north entrance of the community along Highway 1.

Residents are strongly encouraged to attend this public viewing, where they can provide their input regarding the design concepts, as well as see the opportunities that exist to positively impact Fairfield.

Residents who want more information, or who are interested in participating in the visioning process, should contact Scott Timm at 515-291-2560 or Hannah Howard at 563-316-0339.

The Iowa's Living Roadways Community Visioning Program is sponsored by the Iowa Department of Transportation, in partnership with Iowa State University Extension Landscape Architecture and Trees Forever.

Library Book Sale starts Saturday, September 12

Friends of Fairfield Public Library will hold a book sale starting Saturday, September 12 and extending through September 20. Donated items include fiction, non-fiction and children's books, plus DVDs and music CDs.

The sale will be held at the Fairfield Public Library during library hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, 9:30 a.m.-8 p.m., Thursday & Friday, 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m., Saturday & Sunday, 1-5 p.m.

Friends also offers a members-only early bird preview on Friday evening, September 11, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Annual membership dues are just $10 for individuals, $25 for families. New members are welcome to register at the door.

Friends support Library services by funding projects that are not in the normal operating budget. Youth programs and computer workstations have been funded by your support of the book sales. New items will be added throughout the sale so stop by during the week too.

Contact the Library directly for more information: 641-472-6551.

Mirabai Devi, September 19 at Phoenix Rising

International spiritual teacher Mirabai Devi will be offering an Evening of Ecstatic, Love, Bliss, Empowerment, and Freedom at the Phoenix Rising Hall on Sept. 19, 7-9:30 p.m.

Mirabai is a conduit for the Divine Feminine, and the founder of the Mirabai Devi Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit. She is a frequent speaker at conferences and festivals, organizes global peace prayer days with other spiritual leaders, and has been devoted to the service of humanity for over 22 years. She works with the Divine Light directly, and her programs and group healings have transformed the lives of thousands of people throughout the world. She is from South Africa and currently lives on the island of Kauai, Hawaii.

Her Fairfield event will lead the group through spiritual teaching, peacemaking and forgiveness practices about self-love, invoking the divine presence through light transmission. Participants experience deep healing as the blockages that have kept them from a deeper connection with their Self are released and cleared away, opening their minds and hearts to pathways of realization for living expansive, healthy, joyful lives filled with peace, love, and happiness.

Mirabai will also be conducting private sessions which are directed in a more concentrated manner, often addressing core issues like relationships, finances, and health challenges.

"The grace of the Divine brings an abundance of miracles into our lives when we follow the path of Love. When we open into Love, we are more present because we are connected to our heart space, and it is this presence that allows the magic of miracles to unfold. Being connected to our heart space means that we are no longer the "do-er," but allowing the Divine "to do" through us." —Mirabai Devi

Tickets are $50 preregistered at www.e-junkie.com/mirabaidevi or $60 at the door. For more information visit www.mirabaidevi.org or contact Guy Harvey at guyharvey@outlook.com.

Singing Cedars Shows Film on Saving the Honeybees, Sunday

The movie The Hour of Decision will be shown at the Fairfield Public Library on Sunday, Sept. 13, at 3 p.m. This movie shares deep insight that Gunther Hauk has gained from devoting his life towards saving the honeybee. Gunther and his wife Vivian have been biodynamic farmers and beekeepers for nearly 40 years. Together they run Spikenard Farm Honeybee Sanctuary in Floyd, Virginia. There, beekeepers attend workshops, lectures and trainings in biodynamic beekeeping.

This in-depth film offers great inspiration for what we can do to help the honeybee. Donations benefit Singing Cedars Early Childhood Program.

What On Earth Are GMO's? Science Café Event Sept. 15

A science café is a live—and lively—event about genetically modified organisms (GMO's) hosted in a casual setting. There is no stuffy lecture or slideshow—the speaker presents the science in a community friendly atmosphere where everyone is welcome. Dr. Brandi Janssen, PhD, from the University of Iowa and director of Iowa's Center for Agricultural Safety and Health (I-CASH) will be discussing GMOs at a Science Café in Fairfield this Tuesday, Sept. 15 7:30 p.m. at Revelations Cafe. This event is free and open to the public.

Peaceful Postures Yoga, Tai Chi, Qi Gong Classes Begin in Fairfield

John and Mary Platt, co-founders of Peaceful Postures LLC, will begin teaching their unique styles of Yoga, QiGong and Tai Chi at Morning Star Studio on Sept. 15.

These ancient sciences teach us how to use the tools of breath, body, and attention to help cultivate presence, clear stagnant energy, develop strength and flexibility, and transform stress into vitality.

They will offer classes in QiGong for Health & Vitality, Simple Tai Chi, Somatics & Stretch, and Peaceful Postures Yoga.

Mary and John have devoted their lives to practicing and teaching in their respective disciplines. They find great joy in empowering others to restore and maintain good health and happiness.

The first class is free, September 15-30. For more information, schedule and fees, visit peacefulpostures.com, or contact Mary at 845-463-3494, peacefulpostures@gmail.com.

Random of Acts of Creativity Recognizes Window Dressing at Health & Wholeness

The Fairfield Art Association salutes another "Random Act of Creativity" in the ocean-inspired window display of Health and Wholeness.

Last year, FAA initiated a new award to recognize random acts of creativity in the community. It happens when a person, business or organization goes beyond the norm and puts together something that stands out creatively. This something can be temporary or permanent, whimsical, thought provoking, or just makes you smile. Of course it is awarded randomly.

Health and Wholeness, on the block north of the Fairfield Square on Main Street, always has beautiful windows that draw you in to take a closer look. The attention to detail, color and creativity is an example of great window dressing. The "ocean theme" window was in place for the summer and is now replaced by another awesome display you will want to check out. Photographs through glass just don't do it justice.

Carolyn Walksman Photography Workshop Starts Oct. 1

The Teeple Creative Arts Institute will offer Carolyn Waksman's five session photography workshop, October 1-29 at her studio, 802 S. Main Street. Waksman is one of the most honored teachers of photography in the region. Waksman students have garnered 200 international, national and state awards.

The workshop will cover: the art of seeing, camera controls, equipment, creative composition and the photograph as an art form. There will be assignments on how to create depth of field, freeze or blur action, creative composition, portraits/people, lighting techniques and more. Digital cameras must be able to change aperture, shutter speeds and preferably have a manual setting.

Class meets Thursday, Oct. 1, 7:30-9:30 p.m.; Sunday, Oct. 4, 1:30-3:30 p.m.; Thursday, Oct.15, 7:30-9:30 p.m.; Sunday, Oct. 25, 1:30-3:30; and Thursday, Oct. 29, 7:30-9:30 p.m. The fee is $95 if you sign up with a $25 deposit by September 30. Checks are made out to Carolyn Waksman. For more information contact Carolyn, 641-472-8427, cwaksman@barclayhedge.com.

Divine Mother Guidance & Deep Healing Session, Sept. 16

Connie Huebner will be leading a free Divine Mother Guidance & Deep Healing session on September 16 at 7 p.m. This will be a vibrational healing taking participants on a profound inner journey, healing on many levels and expanding inner awareness to establish a deeper connection with the Divine.

Attend this session by webcast, teleconference, Skype, or at the Divine Mother Church (alley entrance behind 51 N. Court). Register online: www.divinemotheronline.net. Check out all of Connie's programs listed on the website.

One participant said, "I now have a deep and joyful relationship with Divine Mother. When I have even a few moments to relax and let go, I notice Mother's loving, comforting presence. I had chronic pain and felt desperation and despair. Now my normal feeling level is simple happiness and contentment. Now I love my life. I have experienced other improvements like more self-confidence, more self-knowledge, and more patience and tolerance, but the most precious thing is the pure, unconditional, never-ending love."
